A RETIREMENT TRIBUTE TO GOSS

Tonight, we honor Steve Goss, whose remarkable and multifaceted career in music has left an indelible mark on generations of students, colleagues, and audiences. A lifelong musician, educator, and performer, Steve's dedication to his craft is an inspiration to all.

An Esteemed Educator

Steve's passion for music found its home in the classroom, where he spent 27 years shaping young musicians in the Ephrata Area School District as a middle and high school music teacher. His commitment to education extends beyond Ephrata, with an 11-year tenure as an adjunct music professor at Millersville University.

Master of Percussion

For 24 years, Steve shared his expertise with the next generation of percussionists through his private studio, STG Music. He has served as a percussion instructor for numerous institutions:

- Lancaster All-Star Percussion Ensemble
- Lancaster Bible College
- Pennsylvania Academy of Music
- Eastern Lancaster County School District
- West Chester University Community School of Music
- Penn Manor School District

Awards and Honors

Steve's dedication and leadership have been recognized with numerous prestigious awards and accolades, including:

- Eagle Scout Award
- Lancaster-Lebanon Music Educator's Private Teacher of the Year (2014)
- Championship Middle School Band, Festivals of Music
- Championship Percussion Ensemble, Festivals of Music
- Championship Percussion Section, Cavalcade of Bands Tournament
- Nomination for a Grammy Music Educator Award
- Nomination for a WGAL Teacher Impact Award

Professional Endorsements

His expertise is acknowledged by leading industry names, including endorsements:

- Innovative Percussion Inc.
- Sabian Cymbals Corporation
- Make Music Inc. SmartMusic

A Legacy of Musical Excellence

Through his 32 years as a role of teacher, conductor, and performer, Steve Goss has dedicated his life to the pursuit of musical excellence. He has enriched the lives of countless individuals, inspiring a love for music that will resonate for years to come.

Acclaimed Performer

Steve is a gifted and versatile performer whose talent has been featured in a wide array of ensembles over the years. His performance credits include:

- Lancaster Symphony Orchestra(2017)
- Lancaster British Brass Band(2015)
- STAJK Percussion Ensemble(2014–2015)
- Overdekte Brug Percussion Trio(2010–2013)
- Lancaster Chamber Singers (2013)
- LCBC Church Worship Band

Professional Leadership & Innovation

A true leader in the music community, Steve has initiated and organized several impactful programs and events. His professional achievements include:

- Organizer of Annual Pennsylvania Chapter PAS Day of Percussion Events
- Treasurer and Webmaster for the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Percussive Arts Society
- Organizer and co-director of the Total Percussion Seminar Camp at Lancaster Bible College
- Presenter at the Pennsylvania Music Education Association State Conference
- Clinician for Make Music Inc., specializing in SmartMusic and Finale software

Educational Milestones

Steve's academic achievements include:

- Graduating cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from West Chester University in 1993.
- Completing a Master of Music Performance in 2004, also from West Chester University.

HONORING
STEPHEN GOSS

WELCOME

WELCOME TO THE PA MARCHING BAND COALITION FINAL SHOWCASE!

We are proud to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the students, staff, and volunteers who made this season possible. Thank you for joining us tonight to honor their talent, commitment, and passion for the marching arts.

Band Spirit Central:

Celebrate the students by taking part in tonight's fundraisers! From Candy Grams and Pickle Grams to flowers, buttons, and shout-outs, every purchase helps honor the kids and celebrate their hard work.

You'll find the tables near the entrances. Thank you for helping us cheer the bands on in a special way!

Restrooms:

Restrooms are located in the gray building just inside the main entrance —look for the structure near the south side gate. Signs and volunteers will also help guide you.

Courtesy Reminders:

For the best experience, please wait to enter or exit the seating area until a band has finished performing.

And remember to show kindness and gratitude to the volunteers who are here to support the event.

DELONE CATHOLIC MARCHING SQUIRES

Welcome to the 2025 Delone Catholic Marching Band's latest production: Our Father's Grace! In this year's show, we explore God's grace through his beautiful creation, beginning with Matt Conaway's arrangement of Baba Yetu by Christopher Tin. This piece from the video game Civilization IV is an African translation of the Our Father prayer. Next, we journey through the Father's beautiful creation with an arrangement of the hymn tune "For the Beauty of the Earth," by our very own Josh Vyskocil. Finally, we'll finish with an arrangement of Amazing Grace by Ricky Valadez, transcribed for marching band by Joe Mummert. This African drumming style arrangement brings an exciting close to our show.

This year's band is under the direction of Joe Mummert and assistant director Josh Vyskocil. Our percussion and drill instructor is Sarah Vyskocil, and our drill designer is Erick Von Sas. Student leaders this year include Genevieve Ricucci as Field Commander, Tim Martz, Zachary Mummert, and Jacob Detter as equipment managers. Our uniform managers are Monica Martz and Genevieve Ricucci. Join us as the 2025 Delone Catholic Marching Band presents Our Father's Grace!"

SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

The Springfield High School Cougar Marching Band is excited to turn up the heat and present, "Let the Good Times Roll!" as it's 2025 Field Show.

Get ready to rock out with the thunderous beats of Led Zeppelin's "Rock and Roll" sing along to the unforgettable synth-pop hit "Take on Me" by A-ha, and feel the soul from Adele's Rolling In The Deep. Last but not least, crank it all the way up to 11 with the high-energy anthem "Rock and Roll All Nite" by Kiss!

From classic rock to pop sensations, this show is all about celebrating the music that makes us want to move, sing, and most importantly — party EVERY DAY!

The band is led on the field by Drum Majors Ben Gillin and Ray Mulato. The band is under the direction of Mark Stanford, assistant directors Evan Gibson and Nicole Narotsky, and Guard Instructor Jen Smith. Section Techs are Kathleen Boyer, Carolyn Cuesta, Kevin Cooper, Donna Burmylo-Magrann, Laura Hopf, Ryan Siggins, Sophie Swafford, Brittany Truscott, and Drumline Instructor, JT Beaver.

We would like to thank the PAMBC, Ephrata High School, and Mr. Goss for putting together this wonderful finale show! We hope everyone lets the good times roll beyond the marching season.

LANCASTER CATHOLIC MARCHING BAND

Please welcome to the field, The Lancaster Catholic High School Marching Band! Tonight's show will feature selections from "Angels in the Architecture" by Frank Ticheli with soloist Aubree Peyser on piccolo and Lucy Kowitz in guard, "Amazing Grace" with soloist Oliver Parrish on baritone and Lucy Kowitz and Nikki Kiefer on rifles and "The Bells of Notre Dame" from The Hunchback of Notre Dame featuring soloist Samuel Parrish on saxophone and Emma Townsend with a dance solo. We will also feature Maddie Reidinger as twirler. Join us as we embark on a musical journey to Notre Dame as we hear the fall of the Cathedral, regain hope as we wonder what new life awaits, and celebrate the rebuild of the Cathedral hearing the bells of Notre Dame once again! The band is under the direction of Director Micah Bidgood Enders, Assistant Director Logan Benoist, Color Guard Instructor Ginny Shank, Drumline Instructors Justin Henry, and Andy Graybill, and Front Ensemble Instructor Emily Shank, "Angels in the Architecture" and "The Bells of Notre Dame" arranged by Logan Benoist and "Amazing Grace" arranged by Kaitlyn Pekarik. The drill was written by Logan Benoist. Student Leadership this year includes Samuel Parrish as Student Director and Eliana Graybill as Assistant Student Director. Section Leaders this year are; Hamish Francey, Oliver Parrish, Nikki Kiefer, Maddie Reidinger, Eliana Graybill, Alissa Anspach, Aubree Peyser, and Oliver Hughes. We would like to thank the Administration, Athletics, the Department of Fine and Performing Arts, and all of the parents for their hard work and support of the students and band. And now, presenting their 2025 field show, the Lancaster Catholic High School is proud to present, "The Bells of Notre Dame".

J.P. MCCASKEY HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

J.P. McCAskey Marching Band 2025 Program Information "The JP's: 60 Years of Funk"

The J.P. McCAskey Marching Band is proud to present their 2025 show, The JP's: 60 years of Funk!!!

Musical selections pay homage to the wonderful music of the Funk Genre – led by the father of funk himself, James Brown! We open the show with a combination of the instantly-recognizable I Feel Good with Tower of Power's tribute, Diggin' on James Brown. We follow with Killing Me Softly, a beautiful ballad by the late Roberta Flack. Finally, we close with Stevie Wonder's timeless I Wish. Stay tuned for our traditional finale surprise at the end of the season!

We thank all of our wonderful student leaders for their hard work and leadership in guiding this ensemble of 115 into another fantastic season!

Section Leaders: Remy Dombach & Aleyna Abraham (Flute), Anthony Reyes & Sofia Nesbitt (Clarinet), Madison Portello (Saxophone), Stewart Geiser (Trumpet), Annabelle Gauthier (Mellophone), Leigha Freed & Ben High (Low Brass / Reeds), Isaiah Leon & Zayd Mattar (Drumline), Gelianis Maldonado & Bryan Rodriguez (Pit), Makenna Urban & Mia Gonzalez (Guard)

McCAskey's Band staff includes:

Director – John M. Johnston

Assistant Director – Keith Kehr

Music Design – Larry Clark (Winds), Jabin Baxter & Rich Klimowicz (Percussion)

Visual Designer – George Blakely

Visual Instructor – Tyler Walthers

Front Ensemble Instructor / Sound Designer: Rich Klimowicz

Color Guard Instructors – Brittany Resh, Brianna Resh, Keyshleen Rivera-Placido

A special thanks to the Friends of Music booster organization. Without the parent involvement at McCAskey, much of what we do would not be possible. Thank you, Friends of Music!

And now, under the field direction of drum majors Olivia Houde, Anya Eden, and Max Modern, the McCAskey Marching Band is proud to perform for you.....

The JP's: 60 Years of Funk!!!!

COCALICO HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

The Cocalico Marching Band is proud to present their 2025 Show: 'Til Valhalla! This journey follows a band of Vikings called to the sea, driven by honor, and bound for glory. Through original music and legendary rock anthems from the White Stripes and Styx, the Cocalico Marching Band invites you to experience the thrill of battle, the beauty of the voyage, and the call of destiny.

Field leadership by student conductor Madison Pasternacki, woodwind section leaders Madeline Bisaccio, Rylan Sahm, and Nick Mitton; Brass Section leaders Evelyn Ackerman, Bryce Goshert, Shawn Dirks, and Elena Welsh; sideline section leader Annalee McCray, Drumline captain Aidan McCurdy, and color guard captain Julia Lerch.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Matt Haelig, with assistance from Robert Wiedemer, Scott Hummel, Susie Synden, Jen Wiedemer, and Dylan Kohl.

Over 100 student musicians take part in four unique bands and two choir ensembles available each year by the music department. The efforts of the students you see before you would not be possible without the exceptional support of school district administration, staff, and the Cocalico Music Boosters. The Marching Band would like to thank Steve Goss and the Ephrata School District and Music Boosters for making tonight's event possible.

PENNCREST HIGH SCHOOL ROARING LIONS MARCHING BAND

The band performs regularly at Penncrest's home and away football games, parades in Media, PA, and band festivals in the region. The band has won numerous PA State Championships in both USBands and Tournament of Bands circuits. The Roaring Lions are under the direction of Craig Snyder.

The mission statement of the band reads: "We work as a supportive community to achieve music and marching success." The staff and student leaders use this guiding statement to create the annual goals and activities of the band. While the band strives for group success, we believe this starts with each and every individual in the program. Developing and maintaining a welcoming, inclusive yet demanding culture is the first step to success on and off the field. Through participation in the Penncrest band, students gain crucial skills such as: being on time, time management, communication, goal completion, teamwork, creative problem solving, compassion for and acceptance of others, and the fact that attitude is everything!

Drum Majors: Otis Eli, Francis Vernacchio
Marching Band Director: John Paul Kuhar
Percussion Coordinator: David Hearn
Drill Design: Tyler Propfe
Colorguard Coordinator: Emily Egan
Front Ensemble Coordinator: Jackson Hilburn
Battery Coordinator: Tim Keegan
Asst. Colorguard: Amanda Rodriguez
Winds and Visual Technician: Bailey Karst
Front Ensemble Technician: Jill Smith
Administrative Assistant: Leighann Keegan

Break out your band tees and black eyeliner—tonight we're throwing it back to the golden age of punk rock. The Roaring Lions take the field with a setlist that's equal parts attitude and nostalgia: Misery Business, All the Small Things, Good Riddance, and Thanks fr th Mmrs. From mosh-pit energy to heartfelt ballads, this show reminds us that punk never dies—it just marches on. After all... it's not a phase, it's a field show.

SOLANCO HIGH SCHOOL "BLACK & GOLD" MARCHING BAND

"Colors of Love"

Tonight, we step back into the 1960s — a decade where music gave voice to a generation. Rock and Roll, born in the 1950s, had become expressive, experimental, and the heartbeat of change.

Our journey begins with the timeless message of peace and love in Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In from the musical Hair. Next, we bring you the upbeat joy of The Turtles' 1967 classic, Happy Together. We continue with the wisdom and reflection of Pete Seeger's Turn! Turn! Turn!, which was immortalized by The Byrds in 1965. And we conclude with The Association's heartfelt 1967 ballad, Never My Love.

Each song is a color — peace, joy, reflection, and devotion — woven together to paint our theme, Colors of Love.

The "Black & Gold" Marching Band is led on the field by Drum Majors Robert Baxter and Mackenzie Landis. The Director of Bands is Ms. Karen Huber, assisted by Mr. Vincent Schikora, with instructors Jared Drennen and Kaylie Gilley, staff support from Joe Null and David Bailey. Sound and technical design is by Matt Green, with assistance from Cyrus Schick. Our student Manager is Anna Rineer.

The Solanco Band would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to our Gold Level Sponsors: Henry's Welding Inc., Martin's Appliance, Reynolds & Shivery Funeral Home, and Team Builder Recruiting, LLC. Your generous support makes our season possible.

OWEN J. ROBERTS

OWEN J. ROBERTS WILDCAT MARCHING BAND

LAMPETER-STRASBURG PIONEER MARCHING BAND

"ROSA DEL FUEGO"

The Pioneers' 2025 field production is entitled, "Rosa del Fuego"—rose of fire. This Latin extravaganza unfolds in four parts. First, we pay tribute to the 1988 DCI world champion Madison Scouts with Ernesto Lecuona's "Malaguena," arranged by Jay Bocook, and featuring trombone soloist Avery Denlinger. We then feature our color guard in Gary Gilroy's scorching-hot "Caliente" with a trumpet solo by Cole Shehan. In part three, we perform "Somewhere" from West Side Story, arranged featuring mellophone soloist Lilly Kuhns and a woodwind ensemble composed of Katie Sanborn, Emily Weaver, Kat Geiter, Ava Berrios, Gabi Coon, Isa Henry and Andrew Weaver. Finally, we close with a return to "Malaguena."

The Pioneer Marching Band is led by a strong student leadership team. Section leaders are Emily Weaver, Ava Berrios, Andrew Weaver, Cole Shehan, Lilly Kuhns, Auburn Heinly, Gannon Black, Neuma Ames, Cam Straley, Leiana Smathers, Remy Colosi, and Annika Sangrey. The band's quartermasters are Cole Beiler, Andrew Commero, Emily Helms, Lauren Helms, Evan Sauder, Mya Matos, and Kayleigh Oberdorf, and uniform supervisor is Emily Weaver. Band president is Andrew Weaver, vice president is Andrew Commero, secretary is Anya Sheffer, and treasurer is Sophia Kurau.

The Pioneer Marching Band is under the direction of Mr. Larry Royer. Assistant directors are Josh Kirchner and Ben Pontz. Percussion instructors are Scott MacFeat and Maddie Miller, color guard instructors are Amy Grier and Julie Stinson, and sound technician and marching instructor is Mr. Ethan Moore. Percussion arrangers are Isaac Strader and Sean Styer, and the band's visual design team includes drill designer Ben Pontz and color guard designer Amy Grier.

We would like to thank the faculty, staff, administration, and school board of the Lampeter-Strasburg School District for their outstanding support of our program as well as the Pioneer Band Booster Association. The Pioneer Marching Band is a proud member of the Pennsylvania Marching Band Coalition.

EPHRATA HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING UNIT

A shimmering, almost imperceptible flutter of a single butterfly wing expands into a breathtaking spectacle in "The Butterfly Effect." This marching band show explores how small, seemingly insignificant actions can lead to monumental and unexpected outcomes, all set to the powerful sounds of "Get Busy," "Sinnerman," "Paint It Black," and "One Thousand Miles."

EHSMU is proudly led by an amazing group of student-leaders including Rebecca Foard (Band-Captain) James Moore (Band-Captain), Sarah Baum, Jeshuah Bautista, Braelyn Beyer, Elliot Boyer, Kay Capwell, Ethan Garman, Nathan Potts, Mila Saenz, Todd Weist, Noah Williamson, Ryan Woolard and Sophia Schlinkman (Director of Social Media)

Staff: Mr. Stephen Goss (Director), Olivia Brendle, Paige Dalavai, Nathaniel Dick, Gavin Grove, Chris Hynum, Tony Kirchner, Kristie Ohlinger, Angie Sollenberger and Quinn Watson.

Thank you to the Ephrata Band Parents for all their hard work and dedication.

A special THANK YOU to Mr. Goss, a mentor, a coach, and a constant source of inspiration. You taught us the power of working together, the importance of discipline, and the joy of creating something beautiful as a team.

FEATURING: WEST CHESTER UNIVERSITY GOLDEN RAMS MARCHING UNIT

The West Chester University Incomparable Golden Rams Marching Band is a group of 300+ students that proudly represent West Chester University and the greater West Chester community. Comprised of students from more than 60 different majors, the marching band involves students from every segment of the campus population and is the largest student organization at West Chester University.

The West Chester University Golden Rams Marching Band has earned a national reputation as a leader in the marching arts and was named the recipient of the 2019 Sudler Trophy. The Sudler Trophy is presented biannually to a university marching band that demonstrates the highest standards of music performance, precision marching, and innovation in show design and is considered the "Heisman Trophy" for college marching bands. West Chester University is one of only 32 schools in the United States and the first NCAA Division II School to receive the award.

In addition to regular performances at local and regional parades and field show exhibitions, the RamBand has performed at prestigious events, including the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, National Football League playoff games, and Bands of America Regional and Grand National Championships. For more information regarding the INCOMPARABLE Golden Rams Marching Band, follow the band on social media @wcuramband.

WITH GRATITUDE TO OUR SPONSORS:

A Special Thanks:

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the volunteers, staff, and directors whose time, energy, and dedication make this season possible. From organizing events and guiding rehearsals to supporting the students in countless unseen ways, your commitment is what allows this program to flourish. Because of your efforts, our kids are able to grow, thrive, and create lasting memories both on and off the field. We are deeply thankful for the spirit, care, and passion you bring to the marching unit family.
